

ALLIES INSISTENT GERMANY MUST PAY NEW INDEMNITY OIL LEASES SOUGHT IN LAWRENCE

TO MEET SAME FATE AS FIRST

By NEWTON C. PARKE, International News Service Staff Correspondent
PARIS, March 12.—"If the Germans formulate new indemnity proposals we shall meet them with the same firmness that was displayed at London," declared Premier Briand today.

"We are resolved not to recede from the line we have chosen," replying to critics that the military and economic penalties against Germany will prove ineffective, the Premier said.

"They will soon show their efficacy."

Proposals Debated

BERLIN, March 12.—Debate on Germany's course at the London indemnity conference opened in the Reichstag today.

Dr. Trimborn, leader of the center party, announced he announced he would present a resolution in the name of the coalition party, approving the rejection of the allied indemnity demands drawn up at Paris.

Coalition leaders maneuvered for a vote of confidence in the government. They were confident that the government would be supported by the majority socialists and the nationalists.

CITY LEAGUE TO BE ORGANIZED ON TUESDAY EVENING

City League baseball circuit for the Twin Cities will be organized Tuesday night at a meeting to be held in the rest room of the Southern Bell Telephone building on Johnston street, it was announced Saturday.

It is now suggested that the circuit be composed of at least six clubs, instead of the originally planned four. The Spencer Bible Class, of the Central Methodist church, expects to seek a berth in the league and it was stated today it was possible that more than one club would seek admittance from the Louisville and Nashville shops.

The cotton men of the Twin Cities also are considering organization of a squad, it was said.

The meeting Tuesday night will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

WOMAN SEEKING NEWS OF MOTHER

Postmaster W. E. Crawford, of Decatur, is in receipt of an interesting letter from Mrs. Nora Henry, Ripley, Miss., asking for information regarding her family. Mrs. Henry states she has not seen her mother since she was 7 years old. The writer now is married and has three children, she stated.

Mrs. Henry's maiden name was Richardson, she said, and married William Thomas Nolen.

"If I could only find out where my mother is living, if she is still alive, I would be the happiest woman in the world," Mrs. Henry writes.

Any information regarding the family or an uncle, Alex Richardson, who is mentioned in the letter also, if communicated to Postmaster Crawford will be transmitted to the correspondent.

STEAMER TROXELL BE SOLD TUESDAY

Arrangements had been completed today for the sale of the steamer Luther J. Troxell Tuesday by J. S. Walker, receiver. For perhaps the first time since the new prohibition law went into effect county officers were scheduled to share in the receipts from the sale of a steamship which had been seized under the prohibition act.

The Troxell was seized by Sheriff May here last summer, but later escaped to Tennessee waters but returned here again after experiencing court difficulties in Chattanooga.

The sale Tuesday was arranged to a compromise of all claims against her.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The United States is not prepared to yield one iota in the firm stand assumed in the settlement of the Yap controversy, the disposition of the former German cables and similar questions arising out of the peace settlement, it was stated with great emphasis in administration sources today. The position to be assumed by the new administration, as outlined, is that America contributed equally with other nations in the winning of the war and that the United States came out of the war with certain rights which cannot be abrogated preemptorily by her failure to ratify the treaty of Versailles.

WORKERS FRIENDLY
(International News Service)
FRENCH MILITARY HEAD-QUARTERS NEUSS, Germany, Mar. 12.—Allied military leaders expressed gratification today over the success of their measures to force German obedience to the entente's indemnity decision.

There has been neither fighting nor friction with the people of Dusseldorf, Duisburg and Ruhrort. A delegation of union leaders called upon General Gaucher, in Dusseldorf, on Friday, and assured them that the workers are not hostile toward the troops occupying that city.

This was good news to the French commander who feared that on attempt might be made to bring about a general strike to embarrass the allies.

SHALL NOT REPEAT
(International News Service)
BERLIN, March 12.—"We shall not repeat our indemnity proposal to the allies," Dr. Walter Simons, the foreign minister, told the Reichstag today.

Dr. Simons said that the application of the allied economic and military penalties had changed conditions.

Contrary to expectations, the foreign minister, refused to reveal the secret negotiations of the London conference.

HARDING'S PLAN IS APPROVED, REPORT

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, March 12.—President Harding's suggestion, offered through Secretary of Labor Davis, that the packers and their employees each send representatives to Washington to aid in an investigation of the packing house wage controversy, has been agreed to by both sides, it was unofficially, but authoritatively heard today.

Formal replies from both the packers and the unions are expected by the President today.

Machine Guns Placed About Jail Where Several Blacks Are Held

(International News Service)

SPRINGFIELD, O., March 12.—Rioting broke out between white men and negroes here at 1 o'clock this morning as a result of high race feeling, which began last Monday when an attack was made upon an 11 year old white girl by a negro.

Policeman Joseph Ryan was shot by a negro early this morning while being searched for firearms, and crowds began gathering in the business section of the city.

Mayor Wescott sent a call for help and national guardsmen from London and Marysville arrived soon afterward and have placed machine guns about the county jail, where several negroes are confined.

Fighting occurred between whites and negroes in the Yellow Spring street district, which is a negro section, and 14 negroes were reported to have been shot.

National guardsmen are patrolling the negro sections of the city and have the situation well in hand.

Tul Worley Leaves for Corinth, Miss.

Tul Worley is leaving for Corinth, Miss., where he has accepted a position with a sales company, that he will represent on the road. Mr. Worley is recognized here as one of our best salesmen and it goes without saying he will make a success for himself and his employers.

At one time he was associated with the Daily in the circulation department and was the most successful man in placing orders for the paper it has had since its founding.

Fourteen Bitten

Investigations of the state laboratory today showed that a dog which ran wild in Chisholm, suburb of Montgomery Thursday night, was afflicted with dumb rabies and that fourteen persons known to have been bitten or to have handled the dog must take the treatment at the state pasteur institute. Ten of the persons exposed took their first treatment today and will receive it each day for twenty-one days.

Two of the children on the list were suffering with chicken pox at the time they handled the dog and it is feared they received two germs as a result of the abrasions.

Spinach Seized

Investigations by food inspectors in Montgomery today showed several cans of spinach which was spoiled and fearing an epidemic of poisoning the vegetable was confiscated.

Nine New Lawyers

Nine of the applicants who took the state bar examination last month were successful and their names were certified to the supreme court for licenses to practice in all courts by the state board of law examiners today following the grading of the papers this week.

The successful applicants follow:

TEACHERS GIVE EXTRA DAYS TO FINISH A TERM

Special to The Daily)

MOULTON, March 12.—Special Since school funds in Lawrence County are short the teachers have been asked to give two days to the 98 for which they receive pay and thus make the term an even five months; a hearty response has been made to the appeal and thus the children of the county will receive two days more of service than they would receive but for the generosity of the teachers. The pay roll for the past month has been made out and turned over to the treasurer—the amount for it being something above $10,000.

A. B. A. CONTEST RESOLVES ITSELF INTO ENDURANCE

(International News Service)

ATLANTA, Ga., March 12.—With the government mediators today on the way back to Washington and neither side of the controversy between the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic receiver and the road's employees indicating any sign of capitulation, the contest today resolved itself into one of endurance.

NORMALCY EXPECTED

(International News Service)

BIRMINGHAM, March 12.—Normal train schedules over the A. B. and A. railroad are expected by Superintendent B. E. Whittaker, in a short time, he announced today, following the beginning of regular schedules on the Birmingham-Lineville line today.

Passenger train Number 22 on this line left the city this morning at 6:30 with a crew of non-union men.

Many men are applying to the company offices here for employment and a regular crew for many regular schedules will be put on soon, it was stated.

New complications arose today when it became known that Superintendent Whittaker or other company officials of the A. B. and A. would go before Judge Henry B. Clayton, of the United States district court, and ask for an injunction to prevent interference from the union men in operating trains.

Chief of the Railway Mail Service K. Poole arrived in the city yesterday from a trip along the A. B. and A. railroad and announced he had established mail service along the road by auto truck between Roanoke, Talladega, Lineville and Birmingham.

G. O. P. MAJORITY IS VERY DEFIANT

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Open insurgency in the Republican ranks of the Senate and House will develop from any attempt to invoke the caucus to impose upon the Republican majority of Congress any tariff or internal revenue program agreed upon by leaders of the Republican "old guard," it was predicted today by progressive Republican senators and representatives.

The suggestion made by Senator Penrose, Republican, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Senate finance committee, that the caucus rules might be used to secure prompt action on tariff and internal revenue provisions, will not get very far, Senator Borah, of Idaho and other progressives declare.

OFFICERS NAMED ON ADVISORY BOARD TO HELP CAMPAIGN OF THE SALVATIONISTS

Meeting Held at Chamber of Commerce Friday to Map Out Plans

UNLESS FUNDS OBTAINED SOON WORK WILL STOP

E. M. Johns Pledges Cooperation from Employees of L. & N. Shops

(International News Service)

The organization meeting of the Community Advisory Board of Albany for co-operation with the Salvation Army was held at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce Friday afternoon and the following officers were elected: J. W. Knight, President; Mrs. Lamar Penney, Vice-President; Harry Wyatt, Treasurer and E. C. Nix, Secretary. The persons to serve on the committees of the Community Advisory Board, and especially the Educational and Finance Committees, will be promptly appointed. The president and those in charge of the Salvation Army work are very desirous that each one appointed to their part in this work for humanity.

E. M. Johns, a representative of the Louisville and Nashville shops, who was present, in speaking of the Salvation Army work said that the shops would do their full share as it was felt the work of Salvation Army officers in relieving distress, sitting by the bedside through the long dark hours of the night with sick and widowed mothers, rebuilding the character of poor disheartened and wayward boys and girls and men and women, putting new heart into them to strive for themselves, was worthy of every support.

B. E. Samuels, Field Representative of the Salvation Army, said that the corps officer, Captain Abbott and his wife, were here serving and glad to serve, but that unless the business men of Albany are willing to sacrifice a little time to help this cause, and as a matter of civic pride, the work cannot go on, and the Salvation Army officers will have to leave. Captain Abbott, who was present, said he had every faith that the people here would respond and that the Finance Committee, which is to be appointed, would see that Albany does her full share. A meeting of the committees, whose names will be announced, will be called at an early date.

HARDING WATCHES THE R. R. SITUATION

Washington, March 12.—Although President Harding is watching closely the railroad situation and action taken by the railroad executives, looking to wage reductions, he is taking no official action, it was stated at the White House today.

The question of the reduction of wages is one which properly falls within the province of the railway labor board, the President holds, it is understood, and there is little likelihood of any executive action unless the labor railway board brings the matter before the chief executive.

Relief Appeal is Issued by Army

The Salvation Army today issued an appeal for furniture of all kinds for relief of a stricken family here. The family includes a mother and three children. The woman is expecting another baby in six weeks. She is a widow, her husband having died a short time ago, and local officials of the Army declared she is in need of immediate aid.

The home now contains practically no furniture, it was stated.

OIL DEVELOPMENT PLANS FOR VALLEY ARE BEING PUSHED FORWARD RAPIDLY

North Alabama Counties May See Great Oil Boom This Spring

ALBANY-DECATUR ARE IN DISTRICT'S CENTER

Large Acreages Said to be Wanted in Lawrence for Test Well

(International News Service)

As predicted in The Daily several days ago the oil development plans in the Tennessee Valley are enlarging and today it became known that leases are to be obtained on large acreages in Lawrence county, which is declared to be one of the richest counties in the state in mineral resources.

Word came today from Colbert county that plans are maturing for commencement of drilling operations in that county at an early date and a drill already is working in Madison county.

Hartselle citizens during the past week became very much interested in the oil possibilities of that region and it was understood here that residents of Hartselle are planning to drill not far from the city.

Work Resumed Here
Drilling was resumed by the Albany-Decatur Gas and Oil company on the English farm, near Autainsville, and good progress made following a temporary suspension last Saturday necessitated by the breaking of a drill in the well.

The formation now being cut through by this drill has been the subject of much comment. The drillers at a depth of approximately 100 feet encountered very hard rock. This was considered by many to be a good indication of the presence of oil at a lower depth.

Big Plans Laid
The development plans, while not dependent on the success of the English farm well, necessarily hinge to some extent on that well. Oil visitors here during the week declared other wells will be sunk in North Alabama this spring, whether oil is or is not found on the English farm.

However, the speed of the proposed developments do depend to some extent on the English well. Should oil be found there the Tennessee Valley is in position to reap an immediate harvest for some of the development plans are said to have reached the stage where they can be put into operation almost overnight.

Center of District
Albany and Decatur are very much interested in the success of the oil tests in all sections of the valley.

A map of North Alabama reveals the fact the Twin Cities practically are in the center of the district in which wells are proposed.

The finding of oil in paying quantities in these areas would make the Twin Cities the heart of a rich oil section.

HELP CARRIERS BY PAYING FOR PAPER ON TIME

Will you not help our little carrier boys by having 15 cents ready for them when they call each Saturday morning. These little fellows have long routes to cover, which they do cheerfully and happily through heat and cold, sunshine and rain. Have the small amount ready for them and save them retracing many a weary step to make another call. Sometimes the distance is great and the time consumed takes away the carrier's profit. Will you aid him? Thanks.

THE ALABAMA SOCIETY OF WASHINGTON

The Alabama Society of Washington, composed of Alabamians who reside in Washington, D. C., has attracted so much favorable comment on its work in behalf of the state and matters pertaining to Alabama at the National Capital during the past two or three years, that it was deemed advisable that a brief history of the organization and its objects be given to the people in Alabama.

A small number of Alabamians assembled on June 24, 1919, by request of Messrs. F. F. Conway, J. C. Davenport, and W. R. Hood, three ardent lovers of their state and its traditions. At this meeting work was begun, and it was begun on the spot, no "lay it on the table until the next meeting" tactics being used. The following officers were elected at this meeting: F. F. Conway, president; J. C. Davenport, 1st vice president; C. Edward Albes, 2nd vice president; C. A. Beasley, 3rd vice president; C. K. Gould, sergeant-at-arms; Miss Bessie Riley, secretary; Miss Sadie Doyle, treasurer; W. R. Hood, chairman, constitution and by-laws committee; Miss Maud Woolley, chairman, entertainment committee; M. L. Strickland, chairman, membership committee; Grady P. Oakley, chairman, press committee.

These officers worked hard and much credit is due to them for putting the organization on its feet. The present officers are: Major Thacker V. Walker, president; L. C. Day, 1st vice president; Mrs. Joseph Kerr Maxwell, 2nd vice president; Colonel A. R. Brindley, 3rd vice president; G. R. Gilbreath, sergeant-at-arms; Grady P. Oakley, secretary; Miss Sadie Doyle, treasurer; W. R. Hood, chairman, finance committee; Mrs. P. T. Carter, chairman, entertainment committee; F. F. Conway, chairman, membership committee; Hugh Roberts, chairman, press committee.

There were twenty-two charter members. The membership is today numbered by the hundreds. The annual dues are $1.00, and no dollar has ever been made to go so far. Meetings are held as regular as clock-work on the first Thursday of each month. An orchestra is always on hand, and delightful programs are carried out.

The Alabama Society is openly discussed by people from other states as being the most active and liveliest state organization in the Nation's capital. It gave a reception and ball at the New Willard Hotel on January 24th last, and the affair has not been excelled by any function given by any other organization in the city, either before or since.

In addition to the social side of the organization, it has a practical side inasmuch as it is a permanent organization that is alive to the interests of Alabama in connection with the advancement of legislation pertaining to Alabama and the dissemination of information relative to the state. The recent Muscle Shoals legislation was given special attention by the officers and members of the society, and they did valuable work in assisting the Alabama delegation in that fight. One of its committees gives special attention to instructing and advising Alabamians in Washington as to registration, payment of poll tax, and voting. It also furnishes literature and information of prospective investors and settlers in Alabama.

Permanent headquarters are maintained at 220 District National Bank Bldg., with Grady P. Oakley, of Thomasville, in charge, where Alabamians at all times, either in person or by letter, will be given information and advice pertaining to matters concerning Alabama.

WE OWE A PERSONAL
DUTY TO MR. HARDING

Those who consistently live by the principles of democracy, feel it as their bounded duty to support what ever national party that comes to power. After eight years rule of the party of Jefferson and Jackson, the majority of the people of America have voted in a representative of the Republican party. Patriotic considerations decree that party differences end at the waters edge; and that every square foot of ground between the oceans, and lying between Canada to the Gulf, shall be considered as belonging to the people of one nation, and not to members of party groups, classes or hostile factions.

At the present time, because this nation is by far the richest and most powerful of all the nations, we must also consider, more than ever, our duty to foreign nations. Rudyard Kipling's prophecy of years ago, to the effect that in a few generations Americans "would tip the world as a man tips a se-saw plank," has already come true. Foreign rulers are openly saying that this country has it in her power to make or break many nations of the old world.

Because of the tremendous responsibility under which we live, it is plainly up to every true American to put his shoulder to the wheel and support the President. As we had to fix the destiny of the world in the great war, so it seems to be falling to our lot to fix its destiny in peace times. We are responsible for the peace of the world as never before. If Mr. Wilson's responsibilities were heavy beyond those of any previous president because of the world war; the responsibilities of Mr. Harding are almost as great, because his administration must be the great constructive force of the world.

What the President says and does, means almost as much in the cities of Europe as it does in Portland, Maine, Portland, Ore., or Galveston, Texas.

When General Washington came to the Pres-dency in 1789, he faced a light job, compared to what his recent successors have had to face. With the exception of the term of President Taft, ever since McKinley died at the hands of an assassin, the Presidential office had been such a heavy weight as to well nigh crush the life out of the two men who held it. After eight years in the White House, the rugged Theodore Roosevelt lived only into his sixties. And as all know, the Presidency has almost crushed the life out of former President Wilson. If for no other reason, Mr. Harding should have the earnest support of every right minded citizen, because he has taken such a heavy weight of responsibility upon him. It is not too much to say that every one should feel it his personal duty, to make the administration of Mr. Harding as easy and agreeable as possible to that executive.

IF EVERYBODY PAID UP

If everybody in Florence who has the money would pay all his bills there would be mighty few folks in Florence talking about how hard times are, says the Florence Daily News.

Almost every merchant in town will tell you that he would be on "easy street" financially if he could collect what is justly due him from people who are able to pay.

There has been a very evident disposition on the part of the people to "hang onto their money" for the past sixty days.

Holding on to a dollar that you owe merely clogs the wheels of business. If you pay your account at the store with the dollar, the merchant can pay the banker, and the banker will have a dollar free to loan you if you are worthy of credit, and want to borrow.

Lots of people who never owed bills that were due, before, in their lives are letting their accounts drag now.

Let's make an effort to "pay up." It will speed up the wheels of business mightily and if you are honest you will do it when you think it over seriously.—Huntsville Daily Times.

WHERE MILLIONS LOOK

In one of its daily talks on judicious newspaper advertising, The Philadelphia Record makes the point that "if you have a new idea to put across, a new use for your product to suggest, you must explain it where the millions look for new ideas—in the newspapers."

And for the reason that "the newspapers are read more for information than for entertainment."

"Where millions look" is indeed, the right way to put it.

And it wouldn't be going too far to say that it is where millions make millions.

The well directed ad, in the right and widely circulated daily newspaper is what the business buying people look for and it never goes unread.

For, big or little, the ad in the newspaper means opportunity and mutual benefit.

In further illustration of the confidence the ad in the right newspaper gives the buying public, our Philadelphia contemporary tells this story:

"The other day two men stood on a busy downtown corner looking at a crowd of 30 or 40 people who had collected in front of the show window of a store halfway down the block.

"What's the attraction for the mob?" asked one of them.

"They're looking at a display of clothing in that window," replied the other: "it's full of men's suits marked at ridiculously low prices."

"After eyeing the crowd for a few minutes the first man remarked:

"Well nobody seems to be going into the store. If the stuff is so cheap, why don't they go in and buy?"

"Because they're afraid to," was the answer.

The store in question has not been long in operation has a temporary look and does not advertise."

The buying crowds shop 'in the newspapers'—where millions look.—Atlanta Constitution.

Judging from a local ministers description of conditions at the terminals of certain automobile lines, there must have been something going on that was over looked by the general public.

It is reliably reported that the Standard Oil Company of Indiana cleared only something like $41,000,000.00 last year. We will kindly volunteer to pass the hat for that poverty stricken corporation.

Nevertheless and not withstanding, and granted there are many slips between the cup and the lip, the prophesy is made that Governor Kilby will call an extra session of the Legislature, and that the good roads bonds will be issued and sold in due time. There is nothing quite so powerful as a fixed idea, and the people of Alabama have set their faces like a flint for more roads and better roads. The more the people think about an extra good roads session and the more the Governor thinks about it, the more likely we are to have it.

If idle curiosity would not belie its name so much, it would help some.

That glorious feeling of new life for all, is gradually stealing upon us. If only the Spring poet does not say something to spoil it all.

Let us be as happy as we can; for the political knock-down-and-drag-out season will soon be upon us.

As the time arrives for them to begin "to bite," Old Man Veracity will be kept exceedingly busy discrediting fish stories.

The Germans say that the Allied terms of settlement are "scandalous" and "outrageous." So was a certain little trip through Belgium and Northern France until it was terminated by the Allied guns.

The dancers years ago thought that the Turkey trot and the Bunny hug were the extreme limit in their day; but the end is not yet!

It would be mighty nice to repeat some of the old fashioned dinners, if it were not against the law to do so.

MEXICO BANKS TO RESUME BUSINESS

(International News Service)
MEXICO CITY, March 12. — The adoption of the new law expediting the reopening of the Banco Nacional de Mexico and the Banco de Londres and Mexico has greatly improved financial conditions here. Several years ago when the gold and silver reserves of these institutions were taken over by the government, bills of the Banco Nacional dropped from 40 cents on the peso to 25 cents. The Banco Londres bills fell as low as 18 cents.

With the announcement that these banks are soon to resume business, Banco Nacional bills have gone to 65 cents and Banco de Londres to 41 cents.

Other well known banks of issue, admittedly solvent, have indicated equal firmness. The bills of the Mercantil de Veracruz are selling as high as 60 cents Banco de Hidalgo 60 cents, Jalisco 55 cents. The shares of these banks are at $83.50 for Banco Nacional, $40 for Banco de Londres Par is $100.

According to the Bolin Financiers de Mexico the total outstanding bills of the Banco de Londres is $26,246,141 and debts of previous governments to the bank $29,232,262.21. If these debts are paid in full a surplus of more than three millions of pesos remains after paying the bank's bills at par.

BILIOUS CHILDREN

Black-Draught, Long in Successful Use, Praised by an Arkansas Mother, "Soon Does Its Work."

Marmaduke, Ark.—Speaking of Theodor's Black-Draught, which from long use in her household has become regarded as "the family medicine," Mrs. Mary E. Hill, of Route 1, this place, says:

"When the children get bilious, I give them a couple of good doses, and when we have sour stomach, headache, or any liver or stomach trouble, we use Black-Draught. It is an easy laxative, and soon does the work. I certainly think it is one of the best remedies made."

Black-Draught acts on the liver, gently, but positively, and helps it in its important function of throwing out waste materials and poisons from the system.

In thousands of households Black-Draught is kept handy for immediate use in time of need. Prompt treatment often is half the battle, and will often prevent slight ills from developing into serious troubles.

Its well-established merit, during more than 70 years of successful use, should convince you of the helpful effects obtainable by taking Black-Draught for liver and stomach disorders. Get a package today, and keep it in your house. See that the package bears the words, "Theodor's Black-Draught." NO-14

CLEANEST-TOWN-CONTEST

The City of Albany will enter the Cleanest-Town-Contest inaugurated by the Alabama Federation of Women's Clubs. The last week in March will be Clean-Up-Week. Mrs. J. W. Cunningham has been appointed City Chairman of the Campaign. Plans are being formulated to district the town, having a supervisor in each block.

The best advertisement Albany could have would be to win the prize offered for the Cleanest town in Alabama. Will the Albany Board of Commerce, the Junior Civic Club, the Mayor and Board of Aldermen cooperate with the citizens and the earnest women of Albany and strive for the distinction of being known as the Cleanest Town in Alabama? Scottsboro won the prize last year, and has already begun work to try for it this year.

FRIDAY NIGHT BRIDGE

The Friday Night Bridge Club met last night with Mrs. C. L. Saunders as hostess.

Jonquills and other potted plants were effectively arranged in the living room, where the interesting game of bridge was played.

The club membership was supplemented by Mr. and Mrs. John Garrison. Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Parker, and Mrs. T. A. Caddell.

The prizes for high score fell to Mrs. T. A. Caddell, and Mrs. Rankin. Later in the evening dainty refreshments were served.

CARD PARTY

The second of the Charity Bridge parties given under the capable management of Mrs. Marcia Bullard and Mrs. L. K. McNeill for the benefit of the starving children in Europe was given at the chamber of commerce rooms Friday afternoon. Over a hundred participants in the games of bridge, euchre, five hundred and rook were present, thirty tables of players joining in the contest. For the handsome prizes furnished by local business houses. Players were grouped and progressed from table to table. Prizes were awarded as follows: Silk petticoat from Ory-Cohen to Mrs. Crawford; bonnet lamp from Cook Bros. to Mrs. H. D. Greer; month's pass to the Princess theater to Mrs. Paul Crawford, set of toilet articles from Dillehay Bros. to Mrs. B. P. Wallace; five pound roast from Simmer's market to Mrs. J. W. Jones; can of Del Monte cherries from Bailey Grocery Co. to Mrs. Milton Harvey; Azures face powder from Albany Drug Co., and two dollar meat order from Marshall & Phillips, to Mrs. Sam Frank; silver teatle from Jas. A. Nelson to Mrs. James Mitchell; silver lemon fork from Stinson Bros. to Mrs. Otto Moebe; Mazda light from Alabama Power Co. to Mrs. P. P. Gilchrist; Dahlia bulbs from Mrs. T. A. Bowles to Mrs. Earle Jones; Silk hose from Hardage Bros. to Mrs. R. M. Buchan, toilet water from Thompson Drug Co., to Miss Emma Hollman; and the rug from Kelley & Hawk to Mrs. R. H. Wolcott.

Another party of this nature will be given Wednesday afternoon of next week for the benefit of the poor of the twin cities. An admission charge of 25c will be made.

GIRLS AUXILIARY

The Girls' Auxiliary of the Central Baptist Church met March 10th at the home of Laura Martin, on Sherman street. The topic for the afternoon was "Down on the Border." An interesting program was rendered, lead by Mildred Wilder. At the conclusion of the program, the hostess requested the society to remain with her for refreshments.

Mrs. E. W. Laxton, and daughter, Leora, are spending the week-end in Birmingham, the guests of relatives.

Mrs. Rufus Moore of Birmingham, is at the bed side of her father, L. S. Robinson who is dangerously ill.

PERSONALS

J. E. Pierce, editor of The Huntsville Daily Times and Berry Pierce, circulation manager of The Times, were recent visitors to the Twin Cities.

M. Groenendyke, of Washington, is here on an extended visit to relatives and friends.

B. L. Malone was in Birmingham Thursday on business.

Ed Carter continues quite ill.

John Garrison, who was operated on recently at the Benevolent hospital, is expected to be able to resume his duties next week.

Manager J. L. Proctor of the Morgan Furniture Company says he has an oil stove that will run longer on a gallon of coal oil than one of Burk's best Lizzies will run on a gallon of gas. Nineteen and one-half hours is the record made by a Clark Jewell blue flame stove, after several tests made at the Morgan Furniture store this week.

Parent Teachers' Association will hold their meeting in the Study room of the Decatur High School Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

BIRTH

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thornhill, March 11th a boy.

Una Carpenter as "Kalama", the dancing girl in the Hawaiian musical play, "A Night in Honolulu" which plays the Princess Theater for one night only, Tuesday, March 15.

The Zuyder Zee.

Large as is the Zuyder Zee, it is a comparatively modern feature in the scenery of Holland. It is said to have been formed toward the end of the thirteenth century, after a great storm when the sea swept inland through the isthmus, thus connecting Friesland with northern Holland, and converted the Flevo lake into a sheet of salt water.

EUGENE O'BRIEN PRINCESS SATURDAY

There comes to the Princess today the latest Selznick Picture, starring Eugene O'Brien, entitled "Worlds Apart," which for intense heart interest, vividness of plot and artistic direction, is said to be the most altogether satisfactory vehicle which this popular star has ever had.

As the story goes, the two principal characters, Eleanor Ashe and Hugh Ledyard, are introduced to each other when the latter rescues the former from a suicide's death. Hugh has just been jilted by the girl he was engaged to and out of pique marries Eleanor.

It may be imagined that two strangers, both smarting under the "unkind arrows of outrageous fortune" are rather unpleasant company for each other, and if dramatic complications had not started to crowd around their lives together, almost from the start, they would have been in a fair way to hate each other. However, when they are both closely bound in a tangle of circumstances which threaten to swamp them, they come to appreciate each other and the end is inevitable.

Hugh finds happiness worlds apart from where he first found it, and his adventures take him through many perilous paths through the underworld and dens of Chinatown. His adventures have a salutary effect on his character, however, and rubbing shoulders with the dregs of humanity awakens from an idling, indifferent son of the careless rich to that of a man of the world, who understands that all men are brothers.

"KATZENJAMMER KIDS"

MASONIC TODAY

The third edition of the great cartoon musical comedy, "The Katzenjammer Kids", will be offered for public approval at the Masonic today. The offering is the joint work of John F. Mulgrew and Donald H. Bestor.

The company of artists who participate in the triumph of this musical melange, last word in cartoon musical comedy, leave little to be desired. They have been chosen by the management with as great care as Mr. Ziegfeld displays when he selects his principals and chorus for his celebrated "Follies".

The music is particularly catchy and delightful, and the apex of success is certainly reached when the people hum and whistle the tunes as they leave the theatre.

The Society Bathing number discloses a shapely bevy of beauties who really can sing and dance.

There are many also and ensemble numbers, any one of which would ensure the success of the average musical comedy, particularly the "Classical Vergus Ragtime" number in which four of the principals take part, and the effect introduced of dividing the audience in two sections—two of the artists selecting the classic and operatic numbers, the other two choosing the syncopated, jazzy, rag-time numbers, provokes a tumult of laughter and applause.

"A NIGHT IN HONOLULU"

PRINCESS TUESDAY NIGHT

In "A Night in Honolulu", the pretty musical play, the author, Howard McKent Harnes, has tried to clearly set forth the true character of the natives of Hawaii. There have been many works by the early missionaries which only served to be instances of gross libels against the characteristics of the most gentle, hospitable people in the world. The Hawaiians love nature, freedom of the woods, the cares of the sweet scented flowers that nestle close to their breast, then too they revel in the rolling surf of the sea, while the mountain stream scroops a low melody to the worshiper at its shrine. This devotion to nature can almost be said to be their religion. In the sunlight they see the smile of the Great Spirit, and what greater tribute could one pay to the Creator; than with a gentle heart and pure thought to show appreciation for the symbols of his benevolence. Their great love of Spring disproves malicious falsehoods circulated about their wilful destruction of babes. Their salutation—"Aloha mei"—the former meaning "Great gratitude", the latter—"Everything I have is yours"—only proves the beautiful character of the race. Had Captain Cook not violated the hospitality of the natives he would never have suffered the penalty of death. The Hawaiians appearing in the play at The Princess Theater Tuesday, March 15, have but recently arrived in this country from Honolulu and the dancers are not to be rivaled in this country. Catchy music, god singing pretty girls and a great cast makes this one of the best shows of the season.

Wealth and Happiness.

"A man who says wealth doesn't bring happiness," said Jud Tunkins, "never saw a small boy who found a quarter in the street just as he was passing a candy store."

"SOLDIERS OF FORTUNE"

Richard Harding Davis left a rich mine of dramatic action in his story, "Soldiers of Fortune," and Allan Dwan has cleverly utilized the major part of it in the screen version produced by Mayflower and released by Realart. As scenarist and director his work takes high rank, and the picture is filled with red-blooded men and women whose lives are packed with romance and the joy of battling for a worthy cause. Most of the scenes are placed in a South American republic, and enough to the real thing to convince the average spectator that the picture was made.

Robert Clay, an American engineer, is sent to South America to develop a mine owned by a wealthy New Yorker, the father of two attractive daughters. The President of the republic is an honorable man, and Clay and his chums fight on his side when one of his generals tries to overthrow the government. The mine owner and his daughter arrive, and Hope, the younger of the Langham girls, wins Clay's heart by shooting down some of the general's men when they are trying to kill the engineer. There is a great old mixup at the finish, with a United States battleship and a landing force of Uncle Sam's sailors to put the soldiers of General Mondoze to flight as they are about to execute President Alaraz and capture the Americans at the mine.

"Soldiers of Fortune" is seven reels of adventure, action and appealing romance, without one dull moment, and is spiritedly acted by an admirable cast, of which Norman Kerry and Pauline Starke are the grigliest lights.

The film will be shown at the Prin-

World's Deepest Gold Mine.

The gold mine at St. John del Rey in Brazil, is the deepest mine in the world. It was opened more than 80 years ago, and had been sunk to 6,320 feet at the time of the latest report. The temperature in some parts reaches 116 degrees F., the rise in the heat of the rocks averaging one degree in every 126 feet of descent from the surface.

IN QUALITY Your Telephone Service Has "Come Back"

Your telephone service has "come back" from the low ebb of a year ago to the high standard of the days before the war.

By every test of quality—average answering time, average time for completing connections, percentage of errors—high class service has been restored.

While we have installed more new telephones than ever before—we are still short of facilities necessary to supply all of the demands for service, and before this large unfilled demand can be supplied additions and extensions to the company's plant costing very large sums of new capital must be provided.

There is no let-up in our effort to provide for this additional service demand and to restore our necessary reserve telephone equipment and outside plant facilities as rapidly as possible.

The materials for this large amount of new work have been ordered and arrangements made to secure the money to pay for them. The work will progress just as rapidly as the materials are delivered, to the end that we may supply the large unfilled demand for telephones as rapidly as possible.

Our splendid, loyal organization is keenly alive to your needs and is striving energetically and enthusiastically to make the city's telephone service as adequate in every respect as it ever was.

MANEUVERS OF A FLY

For several weeks during the cold weather I had been living in a home where I could keep warm but when springtime came I decided to get out and enjoy life. Much to my delight, I found a pile of decaying vegetable matter and was enabled to saturate my body with this filth. As I had become very hungry for something sweet, I started for a nearby house, which I had difficulty in entering on account of some little wire screens that were over the doors and windows. However, I hung around outside the kitchen door until it was opened and then darted inside.

Once inside, I began to look for new adventures. I walked all over the butter, then was in the act of brushing my feet in the sugar bowl when all of a sudden something struck right beside me, knocking me several feet. This was proving to be quite exciting! A little girl chased me all around the room, striking at me with a piece of wire screen attached to a stick. Needless to say I left the room speedily. In the adjoining room I found a sick person and I was not given a very cordial welcome there either for that same little girl with the wire screen gave me another scare. She almost hit me twice. When I escaped that time I made up my mind to get out of that house so I took my post near the door and when it was opened I dashed out, just as happy to get out as I was to get in if not a little more so.

Upon being released from this place of torment I found a nice open garage can where I proceeded to bathe myself. It was here that one of my friends told me of a house across the street that I could enter without difficulty and remain without being troubled by fly-swatters. After laying 100 eggs in this convenient garbage heap (for I knew my offspring would develop quickly in this place) I proceeded to fly over to the house where my friend directed me. I had no trouble getting in to that house for there were no screens and when I got inside I was not lonely at all for there were many, many flies crawling over butter, pies and other food, washing themselves wherever they pleased and brushing their feet anyplace they desired. I was not at all surprised to find three children in that home who were sick with colitis because we flies have a "hobby" of carrying the germs of typhoid, colitis, tuberculosis, and their kindred diseases from filthy places to the food of babies as well as grown-ups.

Needless to say I have remained in this home. Since my entrance have laid one more batch of eggs in the barn-lot. You may rest assured that I have carefully directed all of the young flies to this house instead of the one across the street. Furthermore I have seen two members of this family die; they were both young. One was about six months and the other two years old. You can not blame me for remaining where I am being treated so well and can see the results of my maneuvers.

Yours for filthier homes,
A. Fly.

RULES ANNOUNCED FOR COMPETITION

Several days ago it was announced that a prize of $5.00 would be offered to the school child in Morgan County who writes the best composition on the house fly. This contest is now open and will be closed March 30th. The prize winner will be announced at the Field Meet, April 1st. If the child who wins is not present, the $5.00 will be sent on that date.

The rules of the contest are as follows:

1. Every school child in Morgan County is eligible to enter the contest, regardless of age.
2. The composition may be written with pencil, pen and ink or on a typewriter.
3. The composition must not exceed 500 words.
4. All papers must reach the office of the Health Department on or before Wednesday, March 30th.
5. Each paper should bear the name and address of the writer.

Several of the teachers have already stated that they are going to assist their pupils by giving them this topic to use in their regular school work.

For the assistance of the contestants I give a few titles below. However, these are only suggestions and none of them need be used. "The House Fly," "The House Fly and the Baby," "The Diary of a House Fly," "The House Fly and the Germ," "The Daily Rounds of a House Fly," "Why I Hate House Flies."

Every school child should get busy and try to win this prize.

FINDS INTENDED BRIDE AMONG WRECK VICTIMS

(International News Service)
PORTER, Ind., March 12.—George Ganst, fifty-five, a widower, was waiting for Mrs. Theodosia Haskins, fifty-five, a Chicago widow, in Niles, Mich., when the news of the recent Michigan Central-New York rail horror here reached him. She was to have arrived for their wedding.

Reaching here, Ganst hastened to the morgue. He was unable to recognize any of the bodies, but his head dropped when he saw a ring on the finger of one. It was the engagement token he had given Mrs. Haskins. A pearl necklace and $100 in cash she carried were missing. After identifying the ring, he stared in silence at the body, then grasped.

"Why the hair was black, very black. Look at it now."

Her hair had turned pure white.

There are heart-breaks for both women as the trial of Clara Smith Hamon proceeds. There is still another woman in the case. She is Clara Smith Hamon's mother. She has reared five children and buried two others. She will be placed upon the stand to testify to her daughter's behalf today.

BURGLAR'S APPETITE RESULTS IN CAPTURE

(International News Service)
DAYTON, Ohio, March 12.—Dayton's "hungry burglar" is on trial. It convicted he will get life for burglarizing inhabited dwellings at night. His name is Bradley Smith, alias James Jackson, colored. It is said he robbed more than a dozen houses. Each night while out at "work" he would take time in a house to eat a meal from the icebox or cupboard. He tarried too long at a midnight lunch and was caught.

Excellent Play Given by School

(Special to The Daily)
MOULTON, March 12.—A play "The Little Wife," was given by students of the Lawrence County High School Thursday evening in the high school auditorium at Moulton. It was well attended and well played; a neat sum was realized as proceeds for the benefit of the school. The pupils participating were Dyke Anders, Riley Cunningham, Walter Greenhaw, William Young, Irwin McCullough, Russell Sandlin, Alma Judy, Irene Burch, and Les Forney.

THREE MOVEMENTS THREATEN SOVIET SCALE RESTORED ON ERIE RAILROAD

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, March 12.—There are no less than 3 distinct and separate movements of seizable portions against the Lenine-Trotsky government in Russia, according to official advices received here today.

The revolt at Kronstadt, which has attracted more attention than others, is, to many, less significant to the Soviet regime.

The revolutionary movements in Petrograd and Moscow are made up of workmen whose principal grievance is the alleged attempt on the part of the Soviet authorities to break up the trade unions.

The third and, from many points of view, most serious movement against the power of Lenine and Trotsky is the revolt of peasants.

(International News Service)
LONDON, March 12.—Leon Trotsky, Bolshevik minister of war, had a narrow escape from death under shell fire from rebel guns in Petrograd according to a Central News dispatch from Helsingfors this afternoon.

(International News Service)
LONDON, March 12.—Anti-Bol-shevist insurgents in the Petrograd district have attacked Peterhoff and Serjhisovka and 8,000 Soviet troops deserted to the rebels.

ONE KILLED

(International News Service)
POTTSVILLE, Pa., March 12.—
One man was killed and 20 injured today when a locomotive on the Pennsylvania and Reading railroad crashed into a trolley car of the eastern Pennsylvania railroad at Westwood station, two miles from here, where the tracks of the two companies cross.

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, March 12.—Announcement was made today by the Erie railroad that wage reductions and the five day week have been withdrawn and that the old scale will be effective dating from March 10.

The road announced that curtailment was necessary and that beginning Monday the company would begin reducing its force 30 per cent.
although none of the workers who are members of the "Big Four" union will be dropped.

CLEMENCEAU DECLINES "CANNED TALK" REQUEST

(International News Service)
PARIS, March 12.—Since it has been decided to create a phonetic institute in France where the voices of all France's great men will be recorded on phonographs for future generations to hear numerous efforts have been made to induce former Premier Clemenceau to speak but a few words in the machine. This he refuses to do, saying that when he dies his voice will die with him. He further says that people often heard enough of his voice during his life and undoubtedly would care very little about hearing it again later on. More attempts are to be made to get the Tiger's consent when he returns from India next month.

BLIND 23 YEARS, RECOVERS HER SIGHT

(International News Service)
LONDON, March 12.—Penguin
South Wales, the scene of the restoration of a woman's sight after twenty-three years of blindness, has provided a new sensation.

A schoolgirl resident who had been ill with lung trouble was laid out for dead. When the coffin arrived on the third day a light was taken into the room. The girl immediately sat up in bed and asked: "Where is dad?" The father rushed into the room and carried the girl into another room as that he girl should not see she had been aid out for dead. She has since recovered.

PRAYER MEETINGS REPLACE CRAP GAME

(International News Service)
ATLANTA, Ga., March 12.—Professors at Emory University have a problem seldom faced by college faculties.
Following the close of a two-weeks'
revival conducted by Dr. Plato T.
Durrham, the boys have developed such an intense religious fervor instructors became alarmed at the neglect of studies.

The proverbial "crap" game of the boys' school is replaced by prayer meetings lasting well into the morning.

COMMUNION WINE HASNT ANY "KICK"

(International News Service)
BOSTON, March 12.—Burglars who break into Baptist churches or psonages seeking forbidden fruits in the form of communion wine, will acquire a "lemon," according to the Rev. Dr.
Austin K. de Blois, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Dr. de Blois, whose study was recently ransacked, announces to prospective wine thieves in particular that only unfermented wine, or grape juice, is used for communion by Baptist churches.

FIRST WOMAN JUROR IN MASSACHUSETTS

(International News Service)
WORCESTER, Mass., March 12.—
Miss Ethel O. Knight has the honor of being the first woman juror to be drawn in the State of Massachusetts.
She was selected to serve as traverse juror at the March term of the Superior Court. Miss Knight does not regard the duty as a joyful task, however, although admitting that if she were younger she might feel better about it. "I have had a couple of shocks, too," said Miss Knight,
"and I may have to be taken to court in an ambulance. However, it is a duty which no man or woman should refuse."

Point for the Dog.

Do animals think? asks a scientist.
Well, a dog turns around three or four times before lying down to go to sleep while a man, without giving the matter any thought, lies down, goes to sleep and then turns over several times waking himself each time.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Purina Chows Made the Difference

BOTH are six weeks old, but just look at the difference! The one on the left is an average chick fed an average grain ration. The one on the right is the same soft of chick fed Purina Poultry Chows.

Decide for Your Chicks Today

Order Purina Chows now, before your chicks become stunted from lack of sufficient protein and minerals.

Money-Back Guarantee

If baby chicks, when fed Purina
Chicken Chowder with Purina Baby Chick Chow as directed,
do not develop twice as fast, during the first six weeks as when fed a grain ration, the money paid for both chows will be refunded.
